How to Buy

Buying Real Estate at auction is EASY!

- Do your homework! Inspect the property and review the information packet before bidding!
- What does the term “Reserve” mean? When a reserve auction takes place, the auctioneer will submit the highest and best bid to the seller. The seller at that time has the right to accept or reject that bid.
- What does the term “Absolute” mean? When an absolute auction takes place the highest and best bid will be the winner regardless of the price.
- Do I need to pre-qualify? No, we do not require you to pre-qualify to bid at our auction. However, if you intend to obtain bank financing, the bank will require you to qualify for their loan. The Deposit that you make on auction day is non-refundable.
- You will need a down payment as stated in the terms of this packet and the auction.
- The auction will begin at the scheduled time. You should arrive at least 30 minutes early to register (get a bid number). You will need your driver’s license or another form of photo ID.
- When the auction begins, the auctioneer will ask for bids. He will say numbers until someone in the crowd agrees to offer the amount asked for. For example, the auctioneer may ask for $400,000 and he may need to come down to $200,000 until somebody agrees to bid. At this point the auction begins, and the bidding begins to go up. The auctioneer will call out the next bid he is looking for. IF you are willing to pay that amount, simply raise your hand. There may be several people bidding at first. If you feel the auctioneer doesn’t see you, don’t be afraid to wave your hand or call out. Eventually everyone will drop out but one bidder. At this point if the property reaches an amount approved by the seller, the property will be sold to the high bidder. If it doesn’t reach a price acceptable by the seller, the high bidder may then negotiate with the seller.
- If you are the winning bidder, you will then be declared the purchaser and will be directed how to finalize the sale by signing the sales agreement and paying the required down payment.
